CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES

INFORMATION FOR NON-CES STUDENTS

COURSES OFFERED at

MA in International Relations programme: Europe in the Visegrad Perspective AUTUMN 2015/16

The courses below are intended principally for the students enrolled on the fee based MA in International Relations: Europe in the Visegrad Perspective programme and other students registered at the Jagiellonian University, including Erasmus/Socrates and other international exchange students, who may register for the courses providing that there is sufficient space – a maximum class size applies.

PLEASE NOTE: courses can only be taken for credit, NOT audited. Student undertake to actively participate in class and complete the required coursework, readings and preparation, as prescribed in the course syllabus

- Registration and deregistration

IMPORTANT: Registration does not mean that the student is successfully registered for the class. One the day after the registration finishes (on Tuesday, 13 October) students should check their USOSweb account whether they have been accepted to the class or not.

Students should go to all classes which they would like to attend during the registration period
(classes begin on Monday, 5 October).

How to register?

Registration and/or deregistration is online at <https://www.usosweb.uj.edu.pl>

When?

START: Monday, 5 October at 11:00

END: Monday, 12 October, 12:00.

IMPORTANT: the course must be linked to the student's programme on the day of registration! If not - you will be removed from the course on the day after registering. (Please ensure that you follow the steps in the 'linkage' section of USOS).

Acceptance into the course will be decided based on the ranking list and the time of online registration. The assigned rank determines the priority: the higher the rank the higher the possibility of being successfully accepted to the course (in the case that there are more students interested in the course than places available).

The following ranking list applies for registration:

- Rank of 6: students enrolled on the fee based MA in International Relations: Europe in the Visegrad Perspective programme;
- Rank of 5: students enrolled in other fee based international programmes at the Faculty of International and Political Studies
- Rank of 4: Erasmus and CEEPUS students who are on direct exchange to the Faculty of International and Political Studies. These students may still be refused a place if the class is already full. ;
- Rank of 3: All other students of the Faculty of International and Political Studies;
- Rank of 2: All other international students of the Jagiellonian University (including Erasmus students on exchange to other units, international students in other paid programmes);
- Rank of 1: Students who does not belong to any of the above mentioned group and would like to attend classes

In case the student DOES NOT SEE the option to register for listed courses on his/her USOSweb profile starting on Saturday, 3 October, he or she should immediately send an email with a request to activate his/her registration with his/her details (name, surname, JU ID number) to visegrad@uj.edu.pl

- Withdrawal: Students who decide not to attend a course in which they are enrolled may withdraw after the registration finishes under the condition that the Director of Institute of European Studies agrees to the student's request (via written 'petition' letter). A petition with a suitable request should be submitted no later than 30 days from the day when classes has started in the semester. Please be advised that NZAL (niezaliczenie = fail) will be entered in the student's records if he/she will not receive permission to withdraw and will not take the final exam.
- Students not enrolled on the fee based MA programmes at the Centre for European Studies may not take more than three of the below courses. In the case that you have been accepted for more than three courses please contact the Administration Office at Garbarska 7a personally at the latest one week after the registration will finish.
